

<https://amykstillman.wordpress.com/2010/02/05/grammy-award-2010-entries/>

Hawaiian Music for Listening Pleasure

Recordings, Recommendations & Remarks

Skip to content

Grammy Award for 2009 — Nominees & Winner

Grammy Award for 2009 — Entries

Posted on February 5, 2010 by amy k stillman

1. Darlene Ahuna, ALOHA PUMEHANA
 2. Faith Thompson Ako. PAPAKU BRING IT HOME
 3. Leilani Rivera Bond. ALOHA 'ANIANIAU
 4. Brother Noland. HAWAIIAN MAN
 5. * Tia Carrere & Daniel Ho. HE NANI
 6. Danny Carvalho, SOMEWHERE
 7. * Amy Hānaiali'i, FRIENDS & FAMILY OF HAWAI'I
 8. Kawaikapuokalani Hewett, HO'OLA I KA POLI
 9. * Ho'okena, NANI MAU LOA
 10. George Kahumoku, Jr. & Bob Brozman, KANI WAI SOUND OF WATER
 11. Natalie Ai Kamau'u, 'I
 12. Keli'i Kaneali'i, KAUA'I
 13. Kūpaoa, PILI O KE AO
 14. Mailani, MAILANI
 15. Makana, VENUS, AND THE SKY TURNS TO CLAY
 16. Gordon Mark, SOLO 'UKULELE ORCHESTRATIONS
 17. Noly Pa'a, FROM THE HEART
 18. Pali, . . . WITH ALOHA
 19. Aaron J. Salā, NAPO'ONA MAHINA: THE ILLUSION OF REALITY
 20. * Various Artists, MASTERS OF HAWAIIAN SLACK KEY GUITAR, VOL. 2
-  Boldfaced entries are Nominees. Click here to go to Nominees & Winners post.

Pakele Live presents Faith Thompson Ako Jan. 20

By Melissa Moniz
January 12, 2011

Faith Thompson Ako, a Kahuku High graduate, is bringing it home this month as she visits the Islands to celebrate the release of her second solo Hawaiian album, Papaku, Bring It Home.

A resident of California, Ako has spent her years there preserving Hawaiian music throughout Sonoma County and the greater Bay Area.

On the agenda for her trip is a performance on Pakele Live Jan. 20 at Ala Moana Hotel.

"I am so excited to come home and visit ohana and share my mele with them, let alone on local TV too," says Ako.

Ako's third album is in the works and scheduled to release sometime at the end of this year.

As a side note: The deadline for Na Hoku Hanohano submissions is coming up. Get your nominations in before Jan. 31. Nominations can be made online at nahokuhanohano.org/nomination/. A minimum of three copies of the release must be submitted to the HARA office with the completed form.